Today was the AGM Run and the hare was the On Sec. He chose Bukit Subang for convenience for an easy run-setting and a quick trip to the brewery.

Some 70 members gathered for the AGM, before the run. The On Sec called the AGM to order at 5.30pm. The orders of business were conducted in quick time as is usually the case with Mother Hash. David Hirst was elected as the On Sec for the coming year with no other changes in the other positions.

By 5.40pm, the proceedings were over. Members made a request to start the run early so they could get back early and go to the brewery early and start drinking early. Now ex-On Sec Jega agreed. So off they eagerly went.

Now, Billy NoHair takes over:

Red Dragon, Won TH and I arrived minutes late just after the voting and after the pack had started early on the run.

The weather was really hot, could be somewhere near thirty eight degree celcius! We were about the last few that went on trail with Bandaraya arriving last. We were left way at the back of the pack. Bumped into Albert Ting where he pointed where the pack went at the check and we grouped with Eric 'Smart Tag' Ng.

The weather had us slowed to a walk while tackling the uphill trails that we wondered what time the two started to set run. No rest for the wicked, we went up and down a few hills, one higher than the other.

Opera was lagging behind after starting off late and called out which we answered. He walked to where we were about to go up another hill but took on the offroad to SCB towards the front pack that got another check closed.

We could have followed him as the front pack was about meters away but kept on the paper trail till we reached the fodder's grazing area to have caught up with Lieo Chin Kean and Jeffrey Yong. We then met Danny Lim at the OP hill top junction. David 'Billabong' Lake was gaining speed running downhill opposite us to sweat out for another ten minutes he said.

Just behind the hill we asked a question when are we to reach the run site but walked up a few more hills before the hill view of the run site to see Soh Ooi Yong and Big Bars stepping down the slope towards runs site.

Reaching the run site, Ramli rushed us to get our beers and ex-On Sec Jega rushing us to get our umbrella give outs while a few were asking if On Cash had collared tees for sale. Barry was all dressed up and sweating profusely, ready to depart to brewery. Chai Kin Sang, Young Yap and gang were catching up with some friends who were cycling there and tried out their bikes. Last leaving the run site was Ramli and us.

Thanks Billy.

As the runners returned, ex-On Sec Jega distributed umbrellas as the AGM freebie for this year. For the AGM, there is no on site circle. All showered and went off to the brewery. There were 95 members at the run, a larger number than weekly.

When ex-On Sec Jega arrived at the brewery himself, it was a like a dog's party! Noisy with everyone talking at the same time. He called the members to order which took quite a while because many were talking intently about what, it cannot be imagined.

Jega thanked all members for the support and help given in the past year. He then called up the new On Sec, David Hirst. In a time honoured ceremony, he took off the On Sec vest and passed it on to the new On Sec who was welcomed with a song and a drink.

On Sec David now took over and called up the just retired committee and all gave them a song and a drink. A few words and then it was dinner.

Billy NoHair acted as bomoh and got the new committee up for a song and a drink. This ex On Sec was busy socialising with members so he cannot remember the few other charges. But it was a night full of camaraderie and good fun. By 10.30pm the brewery called the last round and by 11pm, all of us left. And so ended another AGM night at the brewery.

Mother Hash thanks the Guinness Anchor Brewery and our coordinator, Simon, for the support in the past year as well as annually hosting us for the AGM Handing-Over Ceremony.

This is my last newsletter and from next week, On Sec David takes over.

I wish to place on record my appreciation to all of you for the great friendship and support given to me as On Sec. I also thank my Committee for the close cooperation in the last year.

Signing off,

Ex On Sec Jega.
