13.3km on the GPS and 395m of climb but if I take out the checking I get 10.5km

Usual trails but start on new earthworks tracks to : check 1. Then back to old trails from the farm across the river and turn right. Check 2 was a back check but confirmed run was going to the tunnel.

Ah Bon had scouted to find the paper

Check 3 Was on some elevated terrace and because of no Jake, John, Ah Man, TT we took a long time to break it. I clicked 1.4km there and

I suppose the others did as well.

Check 4 (Can't remember)but it must have been easy.

Check 5 Was a circular and intercepted straight forward but we thing paper started to the left some way away.

Check 6 Was on the way home to get to the tunnel and back down the railway line.

At the end we went from the oil palm onto a new access road for the railway and then back home.
