It was raining all day today in KL as well as in Ulu Yam, varying between light and heavy. Traffic was bad in some areas and many members were turning up just in time. But fortunately, the rain gods held up for Mother Hash and it stopped raining just as the run was to start.

In wet track and dry weather, On Sec ran along followed by the walking pack. The first check was close by and it was quickly broken. Some turned back and did a road walk and did not seem to miss the run. All along the road, we could hear the pack calling, meaning they were quite close to the road. In fact they all returned just after the walking pack. First runner in was Andy Low at sharp 7pm. All others by 7.30pm.

Circle started early and this time On Sec got an ex-member as the butler, an ex-member from 43 years ago, Ken Buchanan. Ah Kah was on hand to train him.

The hare and the co-Hares were next up. Half thought it was a good run and the other half did not. So they got a good song and 'that' song as wellat the same time!

On Cash is still on holiday, on his own money we hope. On Sec made the pleas on his behalf.

Kenny had run with us before so he should be a returnee. So he remained and Ken and Mark got up as returnees. Ken was a member 43 years ago and Mark, his son, had run with us 15 years ago. Only Dennis Khoo being the longest member around now, could somewhat recall Ken. On Sec had to stop him reminiscing and give the returnees a drink.

On Sec then kept Ken, Mark and got Jamie up again. (Jamie is Mark's brother-in-law). The On Sec told the members that Ken and Mark were Scottish and Jamie is English.

He said that the Scottish were very jealous of us Malaysians. Members and the 3 on the box were of course confused. On Sec went on to explain that we in Malaysia have got our independence from the English but the Scots haven't yet!!

On Sec got Wong Chee Keong up. He sells shoes but had no stock today, of all the days, because Barry needed a pair as he forgot his, as he sometimes does. But surprisingly, Kana has a stock of used pairs, so Barry was saved. Good show Kana. All three for the drink.

Interhash Sec was up for his announcements.

He also got Ah Meng up and asked if he had Hardy's birthday run shirt from early this year. Ah Meng said, Yes, he did not have the shirt. So Hardy gave him a specially printed birthday run shirt.

Then of course, members always spot anyone with new shoes. (How come members like Playboy Choo never get caught?).

This time it was Jamie, so he was up. But Ken was a member and he should have advised him! So Ken and Jamie had a drink out of Jamie's shoe.

The Bomoh for the night was Bon.

He said that there were 20 guests who could not find the runsite and were probably still circling around Ulu Yam. What a loss of guest's fees! Just because the Hare did not put up hash signs. Hare got a drink.

The Bomoh said that the hare asked for 3 packs of paper, instead of the usual 1. 9000 pieces! Hare said for a long run. But it was a very short run. Mastermind Tyson and other co-hares were all up. They dared to falsely accuse the Bomoh (in his capacity as JM) of calling the hare and telling him to make it a short run. All got a drink.

Ah Kah was up next. He was thanked for doing road repairs by putting branches and stones, warning of a large pothole. Missed his calling? Perhaps he missed another calling too? Ah Kah tried his hand at match making 2 members, Ah Siong and Ah Lek, at an unmentionable chapter.

On Sec then called up the hare. Many have not seen him around too much. So all were surprised when he got a 10-year membership patch. And a drink. Poor chap had too many and full cups too.

He was happy when called to give directions to Hock Lay for the ON ON.

On On.
